

Womens Empowerment Project (WEP) : Market Based Skill and Microcredit Training

Situation: Delivering Essential livelihood skills to Vulnerable Women and Adolescent Girls of Nepal, or Sustainable women's economic development through skill training.

Inputs/Resources	Activities	Participants	Outcomes
			Short Term	Medium	Long Term
TSW- Field staff	Form womens group in every ward of the VDC	Community Members	School Uniforms for local school children, without going to district centers.	Increase in employment opportunity	Help sustainable livelihood of women; with better social and economic status.
Budget: $2500	Select interested women for the training	Vulnerable women and girls.	Women will be motivated for self earning.	Increase household income by helping women to discover their potentialities.	Empowered women through enhanced skill training program.
Duration: 6 months	To provide knitting and sewing skill development for selected womens group.	Civil society groups such as local womens group	Local resources can access market.	Help women be more creative and productive through active interaction among women group.	Women gain feeling of self dependence.
Local Expertise	Provide sewing machines and material for interested women groups.	Local Parents Teacher Association.	Women will develop new skills and business capabilities, during free time.	Number of girls in local school enrolment will increased.	Provide social equality between men and women regarding income generating capability.
	Networking between producers and market (consumers)	Wider economic market providers linking to livelihood activities.	Local people will be benefited at community level		Community members will have ownership by developing within own community.